PRETTIEST

Girl of the Big Circus Victoria Codona is Pronounced to Be."The prettiest girl of the circus." That's what they all say, at least all the Barnum and Bailey circus folks. Upon the program she is known as La Belle Victoria, but her real name is Victoria Codona, and through her vein courses Castilian blood.Although scarcely 19 years of age this slip of a girl contributes to the circus menu what many consider the individual gem of the entire performance. Upon a slender steel strand high in the air she negotiates stunts which the circus man avers will make one grip the sides of his chair, and she does it all without the use of ages of the local team for all games played to date. The player leading this list at the end of the season will be presented with a $25 suit of clothes by the Donohue and Johnson clothing store. The boys are all working hard for this honor and although several are ahead of the bunch any member of the team can win out yet as only half the games have been played:

GORMAN

Stars Will Play Local Team at Union Park Sunday Afternoon.The Gorman Stars baseball team of Austin, will play the local team at Union Park Sunday afternoon at 2:45. The game will be called fifteen minutes earlier in order to allow the visitors to catch the 5:40 train home.The Gorman team played the locals here several weeks ago although the locals won the game which went only five innings when rain prevented it. The Gorman team showed that it was a good team and in a full nine inning game would make the locals hard to catch. In the last game the locals got two hits off the Gorman pitcher, while the visitors were unable to get a hit off Danley's delivery. The three runs scored by the local team were all made on errors.The local team, after defeating the New Martinsville team two games on the Fourth, feels strong and is confident of a victory in tomorrow's contest.BOWLING

Accounts of Candidates Are Now Being Filed in Charleston.CHARLESTON, July 6.—Candidates for nominations in the recent Republican primary are now sending in their expense accounts on an average of several a day. Judges, senators, members of the House of Delegates, are among the list. The last ones to send in their expense accounts are:Colonel A. R. Stallings, candidate for judge in the Sixteenth Judicial circuit, swears it cost him $710.35 to secure the nomination. His expense list is a long one, showing the amount he paid to every person whom he employed to do any work for him. The greater portion of his expense was for listing and canvassing of voters, workers, for teams and hotel bills etc. For newspaper announcements he paid $107.50; for postage $20.00; printing cards, pictures, etc., $35.00; assessment by the judicial committee, $25.00.Judge Homer B. Woods, of Har-risonville, who was a candidate to succeed himself in the Third Judicial circuit, swears his nomination cost him only what he paid to the Republican judicial committee, $150.00.Editor McDougal, of Kenova, shows it cost him $102.05 to be a candidate for the senatorial nomination in the Sixth Senatorial district.
This was divided as follows: For placing name on ballots, $40.00; newspaper announcement, $23.00; postage and printing, $25.00; traveling expenses, etc., $15.00; hotel bills, horse hire, etc., $18.95.For being a candidate for the House of Delegates in Fayette county, it cost John B. Horan $56.20.
Of this amount, $25.00 was for announcements, and $10.00 for committee assessment.

FOR GRAND JURY

Rosenshine is Held for Dealing in Junk Without a State License.Myer Rosenshine a local junk dealer, was held for the grand jury under bond of $200 late Friday afternoon in Justice G. H. Gordon's court on a charge of engaging in the junk business without having a state license. He furnished the bond and was released. John T. Hopkins, a junk dealer of Mannington, who preferred the charge against Rosenshine, was acquitted of a like charge, as he had a state license. Rosenshine preferred the charge against him.Special at
